In May 2009, a new organisational structure was introduced to the old Civic Centre. Burnie Sports & Events, a separate entity was contracted to manage functions and events, together with catering. While many Council staff became BSE staff, in essence, their jobs did not change. Read More ...

A Historical Note

In 1976 the Burnie Civic Centre was officially opened and was the first purpose-built fully professional regional arts centre in Tasmania. The Centre incorporated a performing arts and functions venue and an art gallery. It is the only venue in the north west of the state, which is able to host large-scale indoor functions.
