

2010 Subscription Season

For the first time ever

The Burnie Arts and Function Centre are proud to offer a varied and excellent program of truly affordable entertainment as a year's subscription season for the first time in North West Tasmania!

20% discount off all performances in the Season Program

To become a subscriber, all you have to do is choose two or more performances from the list below and pay for your subscription by 19 March.

After this date all tickets will go on sale to the general public at the non-subscription prices.

Once a subscriber, if you require any additional tickets after this date you will also receive the 20% discount price for any other show you choose from the Season. The prices below show both the regular full and concession prices followed by the subscription price with the 20% discount. Start saving now!
