Circus Trick Tease - Town Hall

Fri 29 Oct 8 pm

Circus Trick Tease is a raunchy, raucous & entertaining collection of misfits including a maladjusted strongman, his neurotic female compatriot & their international star.

Together, they play out their chaotic roles in dazzling displays of acrobatics, precarious balances & gratuitous headstands. A schools' matinee will also be available, details TBA

Circus Trick Tease takes elements of traditional circus and incorporates comedy, satire, drama, love, and of course jaw dropping tricks of strength, poise and flexibility.

The show consists of one strong man, who is quite sensitive and is known to break into song every now and again. He lifts 4 female audience members who sit on swings attached to a bar-bell, giving a new meaning to the term "picking up women."

Also starring is a small, flexible femme fatale with a princess disposition and a foul temper. This dimwitted starlet still smiles moronically whether she is being swung precariously around like a skipping rope or clambering 5 meters to the top of a human balance.

Last but not least is a handstand expert from Iran who does head balances on anything ranging from a bar stool to a bottle. This international star has been hired by the other two, to add some degree of credibility to an otherwise dubious show.

The group will dazzle any audience as they balance effortlessly on each other's hands, head and feet. They strive to overcome the barriers of gender, race, ego and ability while maintaining the principle that the show must always go on.
